

Frances (Fran) Aponte, Past President of the Connecticut Association of School Psychologists, is a Certified School Psychologist and works for the Bridgeport Public Schools. Fran holds her Certificate of Advanced Studies and Certification in School Psychology from Fairfield University. She also received her Master's in Art Degree in Applied Psychology-Human Services from Fairfield University. Prior to becoming a School Psychologist, Fran was the Ombudsman for Special Education for the Bridgeport Public Schools.

Fran began her involvement with the Connecticut Association of School Psychologist as a graduate student and joined the Professional Development Programs Committee as a committee member. She soon became Co-Chair of the committee for several years. Fran has also served as Vice-President and Secretary.

Fran was an Adjunct Instructor at Sacred Heart University for the undergraduate program in Psychology Department. She taught Adolescent Development to future teachers and school psychologists.