

Michelle B. Catucci is the President of the Connecticut School Counselor Association (CSCA). She has been on the CSCA Governing Board for 6 years and was previously the Middle School Vice President. She has also served as a school liaison for the Madison Youth & Family Services Board and on the Advisory Board for Free Spirit Publishing. Being a strong believer that all children have the ability to reach their goals and be successful, she has worked with school counselors and other educators throughout the state to promote the Student Success Plan and college & career readiness for all students. She is a certified K – 12 School Counselor, currently servicing students at Daniel Hand High School in Madison, CT and a Nationally Certified Counselor (NCC) through the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC).